Dear Dr. Buller:

I am writing to inform you that on May 7, 2021, the Committee on Accreditation, on behalf of the Commission on Teacher Credentialing, assigned the status of Accreditation with Stipulations to Pacific Union College and its credential programs. On the basis of this decision, the institution is authorized to offer the following programs:

Preliminary Multiple and Single Subject

The following stipulations must be addressed by the institution:

1. That within one year, the institution provides evidence
 - a. That it actively involves relevant stakeholder groups in the decision making for the educator preparation program.
 - b. That the recruitment and faculty development efforts support hiring and retention of faculty who represent and support diversity and excellence.
 - c. That faculty and other instructional personnel have qualifications including knowledge of diversity in society, including diverse abilities, culture, language, ethnicity, and gender orientation was not consistently evidenced.
 - d. That the course of study is grounded in current research on effective practice.
 - e. That the unit and program collaborate with partners regarding the criteria and selection of site-based supervisors and school sites, as outlined in program standard 3.
 - f. That the education unit implements a comprehensive continuous improvement process at the unit and program level including the regular collection of data, analysis, and makes appropriate modifications based on its findings.
2. That a progress report be provided to the Committee on Accreditation six months from the date of the original site visit.

In addition:

- The institution's response to the preconditions is accepted.
- Pacific Union College is permitted to propose new credential programs for approval by the Committee on Accreditation.

- Pacific Union College continues in its assigned cohort on the schedule of accreditation activities as determined by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

Should you or your staff have any questions relating to this action, you may address them to Cheryl Hickey, Administrator of Accreditation, at chickey@ctc.ca.gov.

Sincerely,
