California Commission on Teacher Credentialing
Committee on Accreditation
Revisit Team Report

Institution: Bay Area School of Enterprise

Dates of Revisit: March 9-10, 2022

Accreditation Team Recommendation: Accreditation

Rationale:

In preparation for the 2022 revisit, the institution prepared a table that outlined steps taken to address the stipulation and all standards deemed less than fully met at the February 2021 visit. The report included comprehensive supporting evidence for each part of the narrative. After examining the written documentation and conducting interviews at the campus, the revisit team is recommending that the stipulations be removed. In addition, the team has determined that the five Common Standards less than fully met at the initial site visit are now Met and the Program Standards less than fully met are now Met.

2022 Revisit Team Finding

Based on the fact that the team found all Common Standards to be Met and all Program Standards to be Met the team recommends that all stipulations be removed and that the accreditation decision for the Bay Area School of Enterprise to be Accreditation.

Further, staff recommends the following:

- That the Bay Area School of Enterprise be permitted to propose new credential programs for approval by the Committee on Accreditation.
- That the Bay Area School of Enterprise continue in its assigned cohort on the schedule of accreditation activities, subject to the continuation of the present schedule of accreditation activities by the Commission on Teacher Credentialing.

On the basis of this recommendation, the institution is authorized to recommend candidates for the following credentials:

Preliminary Multiple and Single Subject Intern
Teacher Induction
Preliminary Administrative Services
Clear Administrative Services Induction

Background

At the May 2021 COA meeting, the Bay Area School of Enterprise site visit team shared the recommendations from the February 2021 site visit. The COA accepted all of the team's recommendations and the Bay Area School of Enterprise was given Accreditation with Major Stipulations. These stipulations included a revisit within a year and eight other stipulations that the institution needed to address. These stipulations were all based on four of the Common Standards being found Met with Concerns, one Common Standard found Not Met, one Preliminary Multiple Subject/Single Subject, Intern Program standard Not Met, five of the Preliminary Administrative Services credential standards Met with Concerns, and three of the Clear Administrative Services Credential Met with Concerns.

After the February 2021 site visit, Bay Area School of Enterprise began to address the stipulations immediately. The institution shared at the February 2022 COA meeting how they had addressed four of the stipulations and that they were making significant progress on the other four. Shortly thereafter the institution provided the Commission staff with documentation on how they had addressed the other four stipulations

1. That the institution provide evidence that it actively involves faculty, instructional personnel, and relevant stakeholders in the organization, coordination, and decision making for all educator preparation programs.
2. That the institution provide evidence that it ensures that faculty and instructional personnel regularly and systematically collaborate with colleagues in P-12 settings, college and university units and members of the broader educational community to improve educator preparation.

2022 Revisit Evidence:

Beginning in the 2021-22 school year a new organizational structure was put into place. The four educator preparation program directors (Intern, Teacher Induction, PASC/CASC) meet biweekly to share resources, make decisions regarding the coaching construct at Bay Area School of Enterprise as well as the standardization of shared programmatic responsibilities. Each Program Director/Associate Dean convenes on a weekly or biweekly formal program team meeting with their faculty and designated student services associate to make, review, and collaborate on programmatic decisions. Program Directors/Associate Deans are instituting advisory meetings to occur twice annually, which involve key constituent feedback, input, and collective decision making. Program Advisory/Partner meetings are held five times a year to provide multiple opportunities for partner participation – allowing constituents and program directors to engage with one another and set the tone for working together in the coming year. Faculty are now collaborating with P-12 colleagues and there is documentation to show this. Most of their instructors and supervisors are from the P-12 setting and continually bring their experiences to the programs.

Partners feel that there is a much smoother line of communication with the institution. Field work experiences are discussed, and others have made suggestions to the curriculum which has brought about changes in some of the program's requirements.

The institution's recruitment and retention of a diverse faculty are very evident as their faculty comes from the areas schools which have an extremely diverse population in students and faculty/administrators.

Furthermore, PASC and CASC coaches have been vetted through an identified criterion list adapted from the Commission's program standards and employed through a survey of interest, experience, and knowledge. MS/SS district employed mentors hold a Clear in the subject area for which they are providing supervision.

Team Recommendations regarding Stipulations 1, 2, 3, and 5

The team recommends that Stipulations 1, 2, 3, and 5 be removed.

Stipulation 4

- 4. That the institution provide evidence that information and personnel are clearly identified and accessible to guide each candidate’s attainment of PASC and CASC program requirements.

2022 Revisit Evidence:

Through interviews and new documents reviewed the team was able to see that Bay Area School of Enterprise has appropriate information available to candidates in all their programs. Current students commented that if their instructors cannot help them with a question, they all know that they can go to Student Services/Operations and immediately receive their answer. It was commented that just knowing this has taken a large strain off many of the candidates.

Bay Area School of Enterprise has a tracking system that enables all associate deans to see where their candidates are at any time. This enables them to offer support for those that are struggling or having time management issues. Instructors, supervisors, and the associate deans discuss these issues at their meetings and come up with a plan to help the candidate get back on track.

The team recommends that Stipulation 4 be removed.

Student Services/Operations and coaches all spoke of how they review surveys and student work to see what can be improved. Candidates spoke of continual changes that are discussed with the students and why the changes will improve their effectiveness. One student commented that their program changed something in the middle of the semester because they saw it was not working, and how the coaches and candidates appreciated the openness of discussing the changes. Candidates and coaches also spoke of how they are asked after every class or semester what is working and what is not, and feel that they are being listened to; and all agree that the institution is listening to all constituents. Candidates also felt that their coaches were very strong and that the feedback they gave on their coaches was accepted. 2022 Revisit Evidence:

Candidates and coaches explained how the candidates are beginning to develop professional leadership perspective when it comes to organizational issues, whether at the school or at a greater capacity. Coaches spoke of projects that candidates have been engaged in that have stretched them to understand leadership issues and has brought a tremendous amount of reflection and growth. Whether it is consisting of educational equity or the idea that schools are an important part of local community, candidates stated that they have been pushed to see what change they can affect in their school. During interviews coaches commented that while it was hard to convince some that they could be an instrument of change, after the candidates had listened to speakers and instructors, and once they were given the tools to be a part of the change, they have fully taken to the task.

Bay Area School of Enterprise has become very involved in the learning community, working with districts, helping other teacher credentialing programs, attending conferences regarding equity, coaching, and how to affect change in schools. A district has come to Bay Area School of Enterprise to ask if they could help run some professional development courses in their district, and Bay Area School of Enterprise is currently working at putting together the materials for this. Bay Area School of Enterprise’s positive impact on the community appears to be getting stronger and stronger.
